The concept of Human Rights has acquired international status. Human Rights are not static but dynamic in nature. It has developed through different stages in history to meet new challenges in future. Human Rights are recognized for the personal development of human being. Human Rights allow mankind the right to live with dignity. Committees of Human Rights work for welfare of society.
- 10 Translate the following passage into Gujarati.
We have already reached a situation wherein all the moral and political values have deteriorated principles of equity and natural justice are being violated at every step and our freedom and democracy are merely shadows rather than substance. The orthodox red tapism of the executive authorities, the disregard for human values, the usurpation of authority by the undeserving, the shameless disregard of principles of just and honest social individual relationship the shocking increase in crime and shattering of law and order in the country make it inevitable and incumbent that a powerful lokpal with supreme authority will be the only care for these evils.
