The Olympic Motto, "Citius, Altius, Fartius" meaning "Faster, Higher, Stronger" is a tribute of human Endeavour. It expresses faith in the ability of humans to constantly better themselves. Sport often brings out the best in us : team-spirit, determination, self confidence and most important, sportsmanship.

Competition pushes a human being to the summit of his capacity. But, it is worthwhile to remember that pride, glory and victory go side by side with shame, disappointment and failure. Physical powers is not everything, the true sportsman is humble in victory and graceful in defeat.
