- The term "Law" is used in many senses : we may speak of laws of physics, mathematics, science or the law of games, when we speak of the laws of a state we use the term "Law" in a special and strict sense. "Law" may be defined as a result of human conduct imposed upon and enforced among the members of a given state. Black stone defines law as a rule of civil conduct, prescribed by the supreme power in the state, commanding what is right and prohibiting what is wrong. Professor Salmond defines the term "Law" as the body of principles recognised by the state in the administration of justice. According to professor Roscoe Pound "law" is a divinely rule. The percepts of law as declared by the Romans are to live honourably, not to hurt one another and to give each man his/her due.

As a student I had heard that the lawyer's profession was a liar's profession. But this did not influence me, as I had no intention of earning either position or money by lying. I had warned every new client at the beginning that he should not expect me to take up a false case or to coach the witnesses. As a result, I built up such a reputation that no false cases would come to me. Indeed some of my clients would keep their clean cases for me, and take the doubtful ones elsewhere.
