- 5 Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below : 10

Every time we look at our kids, we need to ask will they be its next victims ? They fight against corruption is a struggle for survival between the corrupt and the patriotic strong public opinion needs to be created against this social disease. Good citizens have to come out of their apathy and become intolerant of corruption. As most individuals become part of the corrupt system. Corruption becomes a culture and that culture is best as described as vulture – culture it is a dog-eat situation when people have been abused at some point in their lives then they too learn to abuse when they get into positions to power. The culture in any society goes top down and never bottom up. Slowly corruption becomes not only a part of the industry but on industry by itself. Real problems arise when corruption seeps into the working of the government and the hearts of the people.

Questions :

- (1) What is the meaning of fight against corruption ?
- (2) What is vulture - culture ?
- (3) When does real problem arise ?
- (4) Who are the next victims of corruption ?
- (5) Give suitable title to the passage.
