A farmer's daughter was carrying a pail of milk from the field to the farm house. She began to think on the way, "the money for which this milk will be sold, I will buy at least three hundred eggs. The eggs will produce two hundred and fifty chickens. The chickens will become ready for the market when they will bring the highest price; so that by the end of the year, I shall have enough money to buy a new gown for Christmas. When young fellows will propose me, I will nod my head and refuse them." At a similar moment she nodded her head and the milk pail fell down to the ground. And there all her imaginary schemes were shattered in a moment."
